My top 20: food-friendly wines from around Italy

In a country where food and wine have long been two essential pillars of everyday life, the potential for standout pairings is endless. Andy Howard MW selects 20 of his favourite, top-value mealtime bottles, and suggests the best dishes to go with each

Elena Fucci, Titolo, Aglianico del Vulture, Basilicata 2018

One of southern Italy's most revered winemakers focuses on one wine: Titolo. The 2018 has a beguiling nose of crushed rock, red berries and a smoky, herbal quality. On the palate, refined tannins mean the wine is approachable already. Great match for spit-roast lamb – a meat common
